CLERK’S REPORT - See attached printed report

OLD BUSINESS

- Parking Project: Manager gave an update on the project with Liam Tonns (via telephone) from Stormwater J; estimate for revised plans came back at over $120,000. Tonns informed Council that septic/drainfield would have to be moved due to County ordinances; Manager offered alternate site on East side of building; Tonns will provide an estimate on the cost for design of that space; Council took no further action pending receipt of that information.
- Code Report: Manager reported on 1650 Southern coming into compliance; Discussion re: 1275 Taylor; Manager will follow up with R. Padgett and investigate status of occupational license for Crest HVAC
- Manager gave update on 2020 audit by Grau and Associates.

NEW BUSINESS

- Manager gave report on American Rescue Act; Glen Ridge will potentially receive $98,000+ from that initiative.
- Council heard presentation from representative of Iguana Busters for iguana control of entire town; Council took no action, as they cannot approve trespassing on private property.

PUBLIC COMMENT - None
